

| Kelly's Brook History Walk – Come walk along a partially buried stream that was once the edge of town – along the original route of the Newfoundland Railway, including the place where the first spike was driven in 1888. We'll see an old landfill (now Wishingwell Park), an industrial park (Ropewalk Lane), an old farm (now Belvedere Cemetery), some war history, and the site of the last duel fought in Newfoundland. |

NOTES: