

| A walk from 1914 all the way to 2022, so bring your comfortable boots there could be some mud on gravel paths. Starting at Branch 56 Legion, following leveled gravel foot paths and paved sidewalks through the former "Fort Pepperell" winding roads. Learn how the unique military history of Pleasantville shaped its landscape. We will discuss about old buildings, present ones, and new ones planned. The first half of the walk is a steady rising gradient, followed by downhill back to the Quidi Vidi lakefront for a visit to the Newfoundland Regimental luseum, and finish at the starting point. |
